How to Talk Like a Pirate

Start all your sentences with the word “aye.”

Add “arrr!” to the end of every sentence.

Call your friends “matey.”

Say “shiver me timbers” a lot.

Put “doubloons” in your piggy bank.

Pirate Fashion Tips

Wear a bandanna or tri-corner hat on your head.

Carry your parrot on your shoulder.

Walk with a swagger.

Wear a feather
in your hat.

Don't forget your eye patch!

Pirate Eye Patches

Cutting is intended for grown-ups. Cut out your desired eye patch and punch two small holes where indicated. Tie a string to each hole, then secure the patch by tying the ends of the string together at the back of your head. Caution when applying eye patch.

Jake's Spyglass

DisneyJunior-asia.com

Cutting is intended for grown-ups. Cut out and roll the spyglass, then secure the light brown tab using tape or glue.

Shoulder Perching Skully

Cutting is intended for grown-ups. Cut out and fold the piece along the dotted line so Skully is two-sided, then secure with glue or double-sided tape. Use tape or a safety pin to attach your parrot pal to your shirt. Applying safety pins is intended for grown-ups.
